INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION IN LIBRARIES

Who: Diane Tobin Johnson, Director of Continuing Education for the School of Library and Information Science at the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Where: St. Louis County Library - Headquarters
1640 South Lindbergh Blvd.

When: Thursday - January 14, 1993
9 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Limited to first 40 registrants

Cost: $20 for members; $35 for non-members
(this includes materials, snack, lunch)

Registration deadline: December 30, 1992

Workshop designed to acquaint participants with the ways in which we create and manage impressions of other people (coworkers, patrons and others), external and internal influences on these processes, and how we carry initial impressions forward to construct future relationships. We'll discuss characteristics of good working relationships, the way self-fulfilling prophecies work, and techniques that can be consciously used to improve interactions with key people. Participants will have the opportunity to "target" relationships they'd like to improve and to develop mini-action plans to accomplish their goals.
